

Child Welfare Caseworker Openings

Franklin County Children Services is currently recruiting to fill full-time child welfare casework positions. Candidates must have a minimum of a bachelor's degree in Social Work or related human services area.

Experience in child welfare field preferred. Successful applicant will be able to demonstrate a strengths-based and solution-focused perspective in helping at-risk families. Organized. Goal-oriented. Able to work with diverse populations in a culturally competent manner. Able to work collaboratively with parents, children, family-identified supports, and other community partners to establish objectives and facilitate achievement of goals. Balance of critical thinking skills and empathy for individuals. Excellent communication skills. Demonstrated ability to put judgments aside and view families as partners. Able to timely and accurately complete assessments and case documentation. Competitive salary and excellent fringe benefits. E-mail resume to fccshr@fccs.co.franklin.oh.us or mail to Human Resources, Franklin County Children Services, 855 W. Mound Street, Columbus, 43223. (614/275-2723 fax). AA/EEO